Professor Humphrey's

SPECIFIC

Homœopathic Medicines,

FOR

Families, Travelers and others

THESE Medicines have been carefully prepared, with a view of supplying families and others with Domestic Remedies, against all the more common diseases which occur in every day life. The list includes not only remedies for all the more common diseases such as Coughs, Colds, Headaches, Derangements of the Stomach, Fever, Worm, Complaints, Pains &c., but also in those more sudden and violent diseases which require to be met on the spur of the moment such as Cramp, Cholera, Dysentery, Inflammation &c., for whose treatment is very important always to have the proper remedies at hand. These are also remedies for chronic maladies, for diseases but very little freedom from which so addicts so much to the happiness and enjoyment of life.

These Medicines, in pregress in the form of large 5 grain Pellets, like all which is sufficient for the largest case, and put up in boxes containing 30 or 40 Pellets, and 24 boxes for the different kinds are used in a case accompanied with full Rules for their use. Forwarded to any part of the country on receipt of price.

Also, Humphrey's Homœopathic Specifics, being a concise description of the diseases treated and directions for taking the medicines, diet, &c., prepared for the cure. Cases, also containing other articles of the small pocket size and of many kinds, supplied with any of the different kinds at the option of the purchaser.

The advantages of these Homœopathic Medicines—a prescription for Homœopathic Medicines a dozen or twenty will be a daily companion for years—and the ease with which they are taken, are such as to commend them to all.

The Convention—Arrival of Eastern Delegates.

The steamer Dennis Wheeler arrived yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, from Bangor, having on board about 500 Delegates to the State Convention. They were accompanied by the Bowen Artillery under the command of Capt. Spear, and the Belfast and Rockland Bands. As the steamer came up the harbor as salute was fired from the field piece on board the boat, under the charge of the Artillery Corps. The company mustered about 40 men and looked finely. Their uniform is very handsome, and their whole appearance indicated the soldier.

A large crowd of our citizens had collected on the wharf to welcome the Delegates, and they were received with unanimous cheers, which were duly returned by those on board the boat. The Delegates were invited to form a procession and march to the City Hall, which was immediately done, and the procession formed in the following order:

Joseph Eaywell, Esq., Chief Marshal, S. G. Nickerson, Esq., and Dr. A. G. Ham jr., Aids.

Peoples bearing a banner on which was inscribed a Grizzly Bear.

Music.

Bowen Artillery, commanded by Capt. Sweetland in full dress full dress.

Belfast Band.

Waldo Delegation—Hiram Chase, Marshal.

Hancock, Washington and Aroostook Delegation—Marshal—A. P. Hill.

Penobscot and Piscataquis Delegation—Marshal—S. F. Hall.

Rockland Band.

Lincoln County Delegation. Marshal—S. F. Kimball.

All other Delegates. Marshal—S. P. Dinsmore.

Preceded by the Committee of Arrangements the procession marched to the City Hall, where the Chief Marshal, Mr. Farwell introduced the Delegates to the Chairman of the meeting, Joshua Dunn, Esq., who welcomed them in one of his characteristic speeches.

When the name of Fremont was mentioned three cheers which rang through the Hall reminded us of the scenes of 1840. We have not heard such cheers since that time until yesterday.

The Delegates were invited to attend the meeting to be held in the evening, and to which we could not find Odjourns were to be provided for. A portion of the delegates then formed and proceeded by the Bands marched to the quarters of the Bowen Artillery Company on Main st., where they intended to camp, while in the city.

The Railroad trains from the East and yesterday bring at large numbers of delegates, and the Hotels are completely crowded, but we the larger to-day that the "elastic strings" of our dwellings are on the motion, and there is room for all.—Portland Advertiser.

The Eastern Argus has come out in a new dress. The Argus has always been a well printed paper, and its enterprising publishers are determined to keep the Argus in good form "up with the times."

Mr. Fillmore, in that immortal speech of his at Albany, which has filled with whole political world with astonishment, and that if the people elect a Presidential ticket made up of the North, the South would not submit to it; and he also said that if a Southern President and Vice President were elected, the North would not submit to it. The Observer, in the Springfield Republican, in view of Mr. Fillmore's with the following questions:

"I desire to put to Mr. Fillmore the question—Did you not in 1836 vote for the regular Whig Candidates for President and Vice President; and were not those candidates William H. Harrison and Francis Granger—both of them from Free States?

One more question, Mr. Fillmore—Did you not in 1828 vote for John Quincy Adams and Richard Rush for President and Vice President; and were they not both from Free States, each receiving 83 votes, the Maryland and Delaware votes for them?

Still another question, Mr. Fillmore—Since you say that the South will not submit to such a state of things:—When were the successful candidates in 1828 for President and Vice President? They were Andrew Jackson and John C. Calhoun—both from Slave States.

You voted that year, Mr. Fillmore, for Adams and Rush. Did you propose nullification, at that time, as the proper remedy to be sought of Jackson and Calhoun?

DEATH FROM FORCES.—John Abbott, young son of Mr. F. H. Glover, died in Meadow last, by poison from eating sweetcorn. It is supposed. He was a fine little fellow of between 2 and 3 years of age.—Saco Union.

Hon. Millard Fillmore arrived in this town in Buffalo a few days ago, where he was warmly welcomed. He seemed to speak as if he never intended to travel again. His speeches, certainly, will not increase his reputation.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the East Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, during its session at Buckspurt, last week.

Whereas, the wicked system of American Slavery has, within a few years past, assumed an alarmingly aggressive attitude, and its advocates, in Congress, and elsewhere, have decreed the supremacy of the Divine Law forbidden the free discussion of vital moral questions by the Pulpit—heaped contempt upon every good who, exercising the common rights of American citizens and in accordance with the responsible duties of their sacred office, remonstrated against a national act of wickedly which would justly invoke the wrath of Heaven—trampled down most sacred national compacts—and, already, in the character of the wealthy assassin and the heartless highwayman, stained the floor of the Senate with the blood of one of its dignified best statesmen, and summoned the sons of Kansas, long since consecrated to eternal freedom, with the blood of civil, harmless, law and-order-abiding citizens, therefore—

Resolved, That the position assumed by the system and advocates of American Slavery is antagonistical to the religious rights and privileges of American citizens.

Resolved, That we look with mingled feelings of hope and fears upon the momentous struggle now going on in these United States between right and wrong, Freedom and Slavery.

Resolved, That the bold, daring, threatening attitude of slavery, and the desperate, ruthless, tyrannical means adopted by its advocates for its extension, force us to conviction upon any judgments that the real object sought in the universal prevalence of the system of all villainies," throughout the Republic.

Resolved, That the administration of government, during several years past, given and evidences of having been controlled by the slave power in the nation, and of a determination to promote the interests and wishes of slave holders even to the dissolution of the Union.

Resolved, That we, wishing to transmit to their children and the future generations, the civil and religious privileges conferred upon us by our fathers, unblemished in beauty and undiminished in fulness, who did use all proper and lawful means to prevent the further extension of slavery upon American soil, and for the extirpation of this great evil of slavery" from Church and State.

We find in the New York papers of Friday morning the following last count of the proceedings of the Whig State Convention held at Leonard's, Ky., on Thursday. We had supposed the Convention would assemble on the 4th, and that it would resolve itself into a Judicial Convention, but this upon was always uncertain. Delegates have been elected from Baltimore to the Whig National Convention to be held at Louisville on the 17th:

LOUISVILLE, July 3.

The Whig State Convention met in this city today, seventeen counties being represented. The exception Whig platform was adopted with the additional resolution that Congress should pass stringent laws to prohibit the importation of foreign paupers and felons, and that the time for the naturalization of foreigners should be extended. Also that the convention deems it impolitic to have nominations, and refers them to the Whig of the Union to hold no National Convention, but each Whig to vote for the candidate whose principles conform most nearly to his own.

A resolution expressing the confidence of the Whigs of Kentucky in Millard Fillmore, and saying he was as worthy of their support as in 1848, was rejected by the vote of sixteen counties against one in favor.

Mosbie S. Bell and Judge Pinkard reported the resolutions endorsing Mr. Fillmore.

Adjourned sine die.

Delegations of Springfield, friends of Fremont and Dayton, had a large, enthusiastic ratification meeting on the fourth.

The following is an extract from a letter written by Gov. Gardner, in reply to a subscription list be presented:

While I hearty sympathize in the proposed purpose of your call, my engagements for the Fourth of July absolutely forbid my presence. May I be permitted to say that though great difficulties in the way, they are not insuperable—that the last few months in this part of the State make in saving up their first fruits for the Republican and in saving their principles against cowardice, to say the least, demand and will bring by quail sacrifices from that other wing."

Among those who have declared in favor of Col. Fremont as the Republican party in the State at the coming election, no man will have more influence with a certain class of minds than Gen. William S. Pelham, of Waldoboro'. Last year he was the nominee of the election of Isaac Reed, and a supporter—though a reluctant one—of the sentiments uttered by Senator Fessenden in his speech at Portland, when he declared that one of the sections ticket for Senator from Lincoln County. Hon. Cochran this year declares himself unqualified in favor not only of unreservedly reversing the present national administration, but also of rebuking the present State government, which he opposed has proved recreant to the principles involved in its election.

In a meeting at Bangor, the General came out openly and boldly in favor of Fremont and Dayton, and gave his reasons for so doing. We are sorry to say that the Bangor Journal utterly refuses to hoist even with "motions in asking it as such." We do not so view it. General Cochran declared a year ago, when he gave in his adhesion to the "Maine law" he conformed at Wiscasset, that if was the last time he should ever be found supporting such a ticket—which only the peculiar exigencies of the case rendered necessary. His own town of Waldoboro', it is well known, gave him an enormous vote for Representative to the Legislature last winter—but we have been informed that it will not support Fremont. Now we do not see how any worthy motive can be ascribed to General Cochran. We believe the step he has taken will be followed by a similar course on the part of the great majority of Whigs, who believe a acting will obtain from wholesale most likely to carry out he principles they have at heart, rather than with those old and decayed organizations, the Buchanan Democracy.—State of Maine.

The Democratic papers seem to fancy that they present an unanswerable argument against Col. Fremont when they announce that he was not a Republican when, in 1850, he was in the Senate of the United States. No one claims that he was; nor is it claimed that he so-operated at that time with those who charged that the purpose of slavery were precisely what they have since been proven to be. Very many who, like Col. Fremont, have stood boldly out on the Republican Platform, then acted with the Democratic party and supported Lumbordism measure as. Indeed, they are many, and now now in favor of "freedom upon Free Soil," who, in 1851, accepted and approved of the compromise measures as a "final settlement." They did more; and that very "should have conceded so much as slavery ought to be inquired by new and open impudent encroachments and new and increased unjust demands. They deem themselves entirely absolved from all obligations betrayed by those to whom they confided.

The Springfield American, which raised the Fillmore flag on the day succeeding the Springfield Convention inspired the next day. Its supporters put together the above locomotive and run off its supplies, and like a repulsed cannon, it went out.

The Lawrence Sentinel has taken the name of Fillmore and Donelson from the head of its columns, has substituted those of Fremont and Johnson.

The Philadelphia North American, an able and staunch Whig organ, has come out for Fremont and Dayton.

The New York Post publishes a call signed by several leading Democrat who decline to support Buchanan, inviting their fellow-citizens of like feelings to join them. Convention at Syracuse, on July 24th, for consultation, and if deemed proper, for political organization and action.

Pennsylvania.—There is a terrible lack of humbug feelings in the Democratic papers about Pennsylvania. We have already stated that about fifty new voters in that State have hoisted the flag of Fremont and Dayton. We have now to state that on behalf of our candidate we shall have in the old Keystone Commonwealth the votes of thousands of German voters, who are breaking from the Democratic ranks, the votes of the anti-slavery extensionists, with David Wilmot at their head, and the votes of gallant old Whigs, headed by that gallant old Whig, Thaddeus Stevens. The humbug of the Democratic newspapers in the majority of Pennsylvania will speedily be ciphered out.

In addition to the above, we have the authority of the Philadelphia (Pa.) Inquirer that Mr. Buchanan's name appears to make much headway among his nomination.—Ed.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Express does not think the 20 old line Whigs in Erie Co., Penn., will vote for Buchanan. Just so here. No man will pretend to support him.

SPEECH OF HON. A. WASHBURN, JR., OF MAINE.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

June 21, 1856.

CONTINUED.

And for these crimes alone, of being unwilling to be governed by others, and of preferring free to slave institutions, the people of Missouri, of Georgia, of South Carolina, and other slave States, have been sent there to rebuke and destroy them with fire and sword; and the President, as far from interfering to save them, as he has since done, has employed against them the civil and military power of the country. Whom influential men, paid from the treasure of the American people, have driven children from their homes at midnight, fired upon defenceless and unclothing women, who shot down our brethren in cold blood, destroyed their dwellings, and ashed and devastated their cities. The President of the United States—through his satellite in Kansas, whose conduct he has never rebuked—looked calmly on, uttering no word of sympathy, and lifting no arm of interdiction. Thus he ended the "deepest treason of popular sovereignty." And now, sir, its alliances and effects are acknowledged and extolled everywhere, and the phrase United States subjects and prostrate slavery in all the Territories is adopted in substance of American and as the foundation element of Democracy. One step more remains to be taken, and that follows logically from the last—it is that under the Constitution of the United States slavery may exist in, and extend to, any power be established from the several States.

Again, Mr. Chairman, have passed away, one after another, the excuses and apologies under which northern men have attempted to palter themselves as the demands of the disorderly have grown larger and more importunate. The Wilmot proviso is denounced and spurned by all who profess to be, at the present time, with the Democratic party. The doctrine of popular sovereignty, which two years ago was an unbroken guest, and I believe now were to sit down in the house of its friends. Even a number recognizes it. Thus one bantling, washed and disfigured as it has been by its nurse, is wet and dry.

Of the ultimate purpose of the slave power the North can no longer be ignorant; and to nothing but to their criminal indifference or complicity with their accomplishment, if accomplished they shall be, is chargeable. And it is not be safe, "there is no danger," and it is from the compact two strength of the North and wickedness of the South, paradoxical as it may seem, that the unrest, the fear and freedom of the northern mind, its activity and constant occupation in every department of labor and industry, have left but little time for political controversies, and little taste for partisan strifes, while in the South the interests, feelings, and thoughts of the privileged classes are bound up in politics alone and mainly those which have regard to the possession of power for the security and propagation of slavery.

A Senator from Virginia [Mr. Mason] said a few weeks ago, that the slave power was strong because it was the power of truth, and because it was, that, although the southern Senators and Representatives are a minority in these Halls, their policy is pre-eminent in Congress and the country. The South—such was the argument—was always right, and, therefore, is always victorious. Sir, the Russian Autocrat is strong—it is because his power is established not with and the bayonets of the Czar, but the pillars of his throne are the foundations of justice. The "holy Alliance" was strong; but was it the power of truth that "crushed out" Poland, Hungary, and enslaved Italy. No; it was the power of wrong and injustice—a power, in its origin, character, and exercise, akin to that wielded by the slaveholders of the South. Their power, like that of the autocrat, is necessary to its existence, and the instrument by which it is maintained. Its presence is fatal to liberty and humanity to question its ultimate triumph. It has uplifted the flag of the Union, for that is the "flag of the free heart's only hope;" and may it be! It keeps step to the music of the Union, for that is inspired by the immortal harmonies of liberty.

The pro-slavery party, at their recent Convention at Cincinnati, resolved, among other things:

"That claiming fellowship with and desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, as the paramount issue, and repudiating all sectional parties and platforms concerning domestic slavery, which seek to embroil the States and invite treason and armed resistance to law in the Territories, and whose avowed purposes, if consummated, must end in civil war and dissolution, the American Democracy recognize and adopt the principles contained in the organic laws establishing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska as embodying the only sound and safe solution of the slavery question upon which the great national idea of the people of this whole country can repose in its determined conservation of the Union; non-interference by Congress with Slavery in the States and Territories."

Desiring the co-operation of all who regard the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, as the paramount issue." Certainly they could say this, because all the Southern view the Constitution gives the Territories to slavery; and the Southern, as everybody knows is in the Democratic view. The "paramount issue" is the preservation of the Union under and because of a Constitution which the South last to protects and extends slavery. But under any other Constitution—such, for instance, as that established by and when Kansas was invaded by "border ruffians," whose "horrid deeds were blown in every eye," they became fully persuaded, each man in his own mind, that one of two things must happen—either slavery would become national, and its care the permanent interest in the length and breadth of the country, and thus a galling and relentless tyranny be set up which could only terminate in disunion, or, sudder still, in a base and cowardly submission by the Free States, which should precede and invite the transfer bodily of the Government from a republic of freemen, to a slaveholding oligarchy; or else that all true and courageous men, all the faithful votaries of liberty and equal rights, whether Whigs, Democrats or Americans, would unite to inaugurate a party upon the principles of the Declaration of Independence, for the maintenance of the Constitution, and the preservation of the Union in all its strength and all its glory. Such a party has been called into existence; and, sir, it will and shall treason

California Steamers,
Carrying the United States Mail.

5th and 20th of each Month.

Reduced Prices! 100 lbs Baggage Free.

Through Tickets, including transit of the Isthmus, via Panama R. R.

By order of the Postmaster General, all the United States Mail Steamers on the Pacific side will hereafter be exclusively employed in carrying the mail from New York direct to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, a few minutes' walk from the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office. The whole transit across the Isthmus is performed in first-class, commodious cars, in about three hours, without the fatigue, annoyance or delay of crossing in mule litters, as heretofore, and with the certainty of making close connection with the Steamers on the Pacific side.

The Company's Office, at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, is open from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, where passengers can procure their tickets and have their baggage checked through to San Francisco.

Passengers are forwarded from Aspinwall to Panama, on the Pacific side, by the Company's Mail Line of first-class, sea-going Steamers, which sail on the arrival of each train from New York.

Passengers will not be allowed to take baggage with them, but will be charged for all excess over 100 lbs. at the rate of five cents per pound.

Tickets and Staterooms can be obtained at the office of the undersigned, 177 Broadway, New York, and at the office of the Company's Agents, 54 State street, Boston, and 208 South Second street, Philadelphia.

For freight or passage, apply to
JOHN G. DALE, Agent,
No. 177 Broadway, New York.

I. M. SINGER'S COST GAZETTE.

This paper is devoted entirely to the Sewing Machine interest. Copies will be supplied gratis to all interested.

N. B.—The unparalleled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several from the limited Count of them, by their ignorance or impudence, to put forward, with their own names, claims for the infringement of our patents have recently been decided in our favor in the U. S. Circuit Courts in New York and New Jersey. In these suits the great principle of Holding Down the Fabric to be Sewed by the Surface of the Needle as it Ascends was established, which, it is needless to say, Singer's Machines have been fully established. The Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines, as we allege such infringements against patents owned by us. We have suits against them in several of the U. S. Courts, which will soon be tried. We therefore caution the public not to buy any infringing Machines, as they can be compelled to have to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.

Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines. To persons properly qualified for the business, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.

OFFICE of the Commissioner of Lotteries.—Baltimore, April 30, 1860. The undersigned, Commissioner of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, acting on recent daily complaints from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery agencies with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be authorized by the Charter of the Maryland Commissioner of Lotteries, to this method to answer all inquiries of inquiry, and inform the public that such Lotteries purporting to be chartered by the Maryland Commissioner of Lotteries are bogus affairs, that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers and Agents for the Grand Chariot Lottery of Cleveland, Ohio, are impostors, and said Lottery a fraud, having neither a real nor a numerical existence, and that each and all Lotteries firm, of Mr. Morris & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are in no way connected with the Maryland Lotteries, and all Lotteries which they profess to be managers of or agents for, are also frauds.

RICHARD SANDS, late of the city of Baltimore, formerly connected with the Maryland Lottery business, is conducting under the firm of R. Sands & Co., Managers, and they have made application to the City of Baltimore. There are, however, no forty licensed holders for the State of Maryland, and no one is authorized by him through this office, to sell tickets in any Maryland Lotteries.

O. H. MORRALL,
Commissioner of Lotteries for the State of Md.

ARNOLD'S COMBINED

FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN,
AND NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES pays particular attention to the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will thus form an indispensable article in travelling. It is heated by alcohol, spirits of wine, and the flame which is protected from every exterior object.

As a LANTERN, it answers all the desired purpose, and it is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a table lamp with equal advantage.

As a NURSE LAMP, as in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm, beside giving the right degree of light for cooking in small quantities. For washing, &c., it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be heated in five minutes, and a room can be heated in a few minutes.

In fact, the various purposes to which this apparatus can be put may be readily conceived by every one. No circular description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To any who may desire to see it, a specimen will be sent to a responsible person, who will call for it, and will deliver it, or they will be pleased to call at the office of the undersigned.

Price $3, if sent by Canal or Steamer. Boxing and Cartage, 50 cents extra.

ALBERT NOYES.
